COMPANY

Actors Centre Australia announces the inaugural season of Actors Centre Company, a collection of four main stage productions, scheduled to take place from May 2023 - September 2023.

The performances, specifically catered to be delivered to school audiences, will take place at Actors Centre Australia's, state-of-the-art theatre located in Norton Street, Leichhardt in the heart of Sydney's Inner West.

The 2023 season will feature plays written by Henrik Ibsen, David Williamson, Joanna Murray-Smith, Neil LaBute and Moisés Kaufman. Directed by some of Australia's leading theatre directors including ACA's Head of Acting and Actors Centre Company Artistic Director, Adam Cook.

ACA Company will deliver exciting new productions to school students with the core purpose of serving the HSC English, Drama and Art Curriculums. This season will feature LIVE Question and Answer sessions from writers Joanna Murray-Smith (The Female of the Species) and David Williamson (The Removalists).

"We're passionately committed to bringing theatre to you that's bold, imaginative and, above all, theatrical. So the work we do is always going to be stimulating, fresh, and surprising."

- Adam Cook, Artistic Director

"These productions will provide valuable engagement with the students and teachers, enriching their understanding of the text through both performance and conversation."

Anthony Kierann, Chief Operating Officer
